LOCAL MATTERS.

ST. MICHAEL'S BELL.-The bell of St. Michael's will be tolled to-day from seven o'clock until after the funeral of the Rev. Paul Trapier Keith, the late pastor of the church.

FIRST BALE OF NEW COTTON. -The first bale of new cotton came down on the South Caro-Jina Railroad on Saturday. It was shipped by Russell & Potter, of Augusta, to Williams & Guion, of New York.

RAIN.-A heavy rain commenced failing on Saturday, and continued with slight intermissions until sunset yesterday. An immense quantity of water has fallen, and the low and exposed lots in the city are all under water.

U. S. Court.—The Greenville Mountaineer, of Thursday, says: "This body is still in session here, and will probably continue for several weeks longer. During the past week its time has been principally occupied in the trial of cases for violation of Internal Revenue."

THE BARBER QUESTION.—Since the publica tion of the Sunday ordinance, most of the barher shops have adhered strictly to its provisions. There are a few of the fraternity, however, who have failed to comply with the law. One of these knights of the razor has been reported, and will be heard before the Mayor this morning.

THE CITY SQUARE IBON RAILING .- A portion of this railing adjoining the Fire-proof Building has been painted a light color, but only as far as the north gate on the Meeting-street side. The contrast between the newly-painted rails and those untouched by the brush is very unsightly. The entire railing should have a uniform color.

NO UNAUTHORIZED BRATING OF DRUMS AFTER DARK.—We direct special attention to the notice of the Chief of Police, published elsewhere in our columns, announcing the strict enforce-ment of the existing city ordinance, forbidding the beating of drums at night, except when, as an alarm, it may be authorized by competent was offered them free, the celored peo-

FIRE IN EDGEFIELD DISTRICT.-A house and kitchen, belonging to O. J. Howard, and situted in Edgefield District, about two and a half miles from the Augusta Bridge, was entirely destroyed by fire on the morning of the 21st instant. The loss is estimated at from $1600 to $2000, and the property was insured for $800. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, RELIGIOUS. The attention of the religious public is invited to the notice in our columns of special religious services at Trinity Church,

At the late meeting of the College of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Nashville, Tennessee, it was their unanimous recommendation that the week in August, from the 23d to the 30th instant inclusive, should be observed as an occasion of special prayer to God.

The special topic presented yesterds y was the revival of plety in the church; to-day it is the religious welfare of the young. Christians ominations are invited to unite in the services. The seats are free.

A RADICAL CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT .- The following mendacious document is being scattered broadcast over the Southern States in the interests of the Radical party :

DEATH OF THE REV. PAUL TRAPIER KEITE .-The Rev. P. T. Keith, the rector of St. Michsel's Church in this city, died at an early hour on yesterday morning. He had been under medical treatment for some days, but rallied so much on Friday last that his sudden death was not expected.

Mr. Keith was born on October 6, 1801, and at the time of his death was consequently in his 67th year. He graduated at the State University at Columbia in 1820, and went to New York, where he continued his theological studies. He returned to Charleston and was ordained a deacon and priest by the late Bishop Bowen in 1829. He then became rector of All Saints Church, Georgetown, whence he removed to this city and became the assistant rector of St. Michael's Church, the Rev. Paul Trapier then being rector. On the retirement of Mr. Trapier from the active ministry, about twenty years ago, Mr. Keith became the rector of St. Michael's Church, which charge he held at the time of his death.

The funeral of Mr. Keith will take place at 10 o'clock this morning, and the services will be performed by the Rev. Christian Hanckel, D. D., who is the oldest Episcopal minister now in the city.

At St. Michael's Church yesterday, the celebrant, the Rev. E. C. Edgerton, in the course of his sermon spoke with great feeling of the late Mr. Keith. He described the invaluable services and pure Christian life of the deceased in such a manner as to touch the feelings and awaken the sympathies of all his hearers. The Rev. Mr. Keith was well known in Charleston and throughout the State, and was universally respected. Throughout a long career he labored assiduously and earnestly in the cause of the church, winning admiration and regard from all denominations by the rectitude of his character and the spotlessness of his fame. Mr. Keith was a plain methodical, conscientious and pious man, whose whole heart and soul, without outward show, was engaged in a lvancing the interests DEMOCRATIC BARBECUE IN CHRIST CHURCH Parish.-On Saturday last a barbecue was given on the Georgetown road, about four miles from Mount Pleasant, by the Democratic Club of Mount Pleasant to the colored people of Christ Church Parish. The invitation had been extended some time before hand, and proper means taken to spread the news on the various plantations. There are several thousand colored people in the parish, and it was expected that about one thousand would be ent. Preparations were made accordingly. and a bountiful supply of eatables for that numbar of people was farnished. When the white people assembled, however, they soon discovered that, notwithstanding the big dinner which ple were not coming. In fact, not more than fifty colored persons appeared upon the ground. On inquiry, it was found that many more intended to come, but had been prevented from doing so by orders from the Union League. This was somewhat disheartening, but Hon. F. D. Richardson, who is the life of the Mount Pleasant Democracy, determined to make the best of circumstances, and accordingly addressed the few colored people present in an earnest and eloquent manner and at some length. He stated that the object of the barbecue was to enable them to hear their former masters and friends in vindication of themselves against the false accusations and aspersions of malicious men. The orders of the League that they should not attend showed a fear that they might be convinced. Judge Richardson was listened to throughout with profound attention, and told such plain and wholesome truths, that when he had finished, his audience were interested to hear more. He was followed by Col. B. H. Rutledge, who made a capital stump speech, one that augurs well for his success in the coming canvass. He interested and amused all his hearers, and if he convinced none, he at least disposed the greater part of them to listen favorably to further argument on the same side. Colonel Simonton followed with an able, but plain and simple ex-

Colonel Simonton had finished, everybody was invited to dinner, and though they all held back at first, as soon as one took the lead all followed: and the provisions, including sixteen hundred loaves of bread, intended for one thousand people, were generously distributed among fifty. After dinner, some sensible remarks were made by a colored man named Guy Simons. When he concluded, Major E. F. O'Brien, an ex-United States officer, asked him a few questions, and took the opportunity of making a telling speech, containing much plain truth plainly spoken. William Murrel, a colored Republican, next spoke, and he was answered by Mr. Kinloch, a prominent citizen, and by Wilham Cooper, a sound colored Democrat. The meeting then dispersed. What at first looked like a failure, had thanks to the determination of Judge

Richardson and the ability of the various speakers, been turned to good account. What had been said had evidently made a deep impression on those who heard; and one prominent colored man said to one of the speakers: "There are not many here to-day, sir. The people did not understand. Next time you will not be able to see the ground."

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS .- The recent fancy ball at these springs was a marked success. A correspondent of the New York World gives a glowing description of the personel and exercises of the pleasant occasion:

Richmond now makes her claim for place in the person of the fair Miss T—, one of that city's most justly noted belies and _buties, a blonde with a complexion of unrivalled beauty and a figure to match. She was a Marquise of the fourteenth century, and wore the usual striking garb—the step is that of a queen herself. Miss M. M—, of Richmond. looked lovely as a Spanish girl. Little Miss Pickens, of South Carolina, a child, represented South Carolina, a child, represented South Carolina in chains. Miss C——p, of Richmond, as a Shoperdess; Miss C—n, of Richmond, as Autumn, very noely and artistically attired. Autumn, very nicely and artistically attired. Mrs. Sharp, of Richmond, and Mrs. General Casey, of New Orleans, (both sisters to Mrs. General Grant) in tasteful fancy costumes. There were many distinguished married ladies present—Mrs. Stenard, of Richmond. one of the most accomplished and fascinating women in Southern society; Mrs. ex-Governor Pickens, of South Carolina, a tall and regal beauty, wife othe former Minister to Russa, and wearing the same rich and elegant costume she did when presented at St. Petersburg, &c.

On the 27th the grand ball of the season takes place, under the management of a select committee of distinguished gentlemen from the Middle and Southern States, who will be assisted by the polite and efficient proprietors and their subalterns.

THE SEA ISLAND COTTON CROP.-The caterpillar, which for some weeks past had given indications of commencing a destructive raid on the growing crop, has not, we are pleased to learn shown any marked signs of activity up to this period, the damage so far sustained having been but slight. The latest intelligence generally indicates a good state of the plant, and should the next few weeks pass

Base Ball-The Carolina and Eclipse

The following excellent report of the match game between the Eclipse and Carolina Base Ball Clubs, on Thursday last, has been kindly furnished us:

The Carolinas having won the toss, sent their opponents to the bat, they taking the field.
First Ioning.—Maguire led off for the Eclipse with a heavy ball to centre field, securing for himself a clean home run. E. Sterken followed and by a grounder between first and second bases, which was not quickly fielded, made his first stole round to third base, and came home on a passed ball. Chency followed, but was put out on first by Schacte. Lynch made his first base on a muffed ball by McCabe, and came home on a passed ball. Myer made his third on a daisy cutter to right field. W. Sterken next took the bat and put a red hot ball to Schacte, which was kindly cared for, and Schacte quickly running over to third base, put Myer out also. The inning closing with three Schacte now opened for the Carolinas, but was brought to grief by a foul bound, which Ma, guire took charge of. Houston followed, and made first and came home on a passed ball. Follin was taken on the fly by Myer. O'Neill made his first on a low ball to second base, and subsequently came home on a passed ball. McGary struck out. The inning closing with two runs.

Second Inning.-Kronan opened for Eclipse, but was soon retired on a foul bound to Edgerton. The Eclipse, by some excellent batting and some very loose fielding on the part of their opponents, edded ten runs to their score-Maguire and E. Sterken each securing two runs and Hayes, Cheney, Lynch, Myer, W. Sterken and Kronan each one. The unfortunates were Cheney on a foul fly to Edgerton and Hayes struck out.

Huger, Schacte and Fuller each scored. Those brought to grief were McCabe, out at first; Houston on a fly to Lynch, which he took beautifully; and Edgerton struck out. The game now stood five to thirteen in favo of the Eclipse. Third Ioning.-Lynch took the bat, but was infortunate enough to put a foul to Schacte. which he took care of. Myer, by a heavy hi to left field, secured a home run. W. Sterken, Kronan, Hayes and Maguire each secured a run. E. Sterken was taken on the fly by McGary, and Cheney, on a fine ball to centre field, endeavored to make a home run, but the ball being quickly fielded by Fuller to Schacte, he was stopped short when within a few feet of the hoped for goal. Inning closed with five

The Carolinas in this inning just saved themselves a skunk, O'Neill making the only run, Follin, McGary and Huger striking out. Fourth Inning. -Lynch was again unfortuate, Schacte being too Alert to let a foul fly pass him and consequently nabbed it. Meyer, Kronan, Maguire and Hayes each scored, the two other unfortunates being W. and E. Ster-

The Carolinas now went to the bat, determined if possible to lessen the difference in the score. McCabe opened with a home run and added another to his score before the innings closed. O'Neill followed his example by doing ditto, making the number of home runs even on both sides. Edgerton, Schacte, Houston, Follin, McGary and Fuller, each secured a run. Fuller struck out, Edgerton taken on the fly by Maguire, and Huger ditto by Kronan. Game now standing 23 to 15 in favor of Eclips?.

Fifth Inning .- Darkness was fast approaching, but it was thought that this inning could be played out and the game thereby decided. The Carolinas went to work with a will, and by some very pretty playing retired their antagonists in one, two, three order-Cheney being put at first by Edgerton, Lynch being again unfortunate on a foul bound to Schacte, and W. Sterken taken on the fly by McCabe, Myer being left on third base.

Schacte secured his run, Houston was put out on a foul bound to Maguire, Follin scored and O'Neill made his first and was on his way position of Badical falsehoods, which evidently to second when the umpire, on account of the cording to the rules of the national association)

The players on Thursday were greatly annoyed by the crowd closing up upon them and giving them a very contracted space to play in. Cannot this be remedied? Below we give the score:
